

Post Test
Infection Control 2008

1. Infection Control Manuals are located in every department in a yellow notebook.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. Hand washing is the single most important method to prevent infections
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. Alcohol hand disinfectant may be used if your hands are not visibly soiled.
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. You are expected to 'foam in' and 'foam out'- that is, use the disinfectant on entering and exiting the patient's room
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. All body substances are considered as potentially contagious
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. If you are going to be in contact with a patient who is suspected or confirmed TB, you should wear a specially fitted N95 mask
 - a. True
 - b. False
7. You must wear gloves and gown when you enter a room with a patient in Contact Isolation.
 - a. True
 - b. False
8. Needles and sharp instruments should be discarded in special containers.
 - a. True
 - b. False